While heading south, you will come across Le Morne Brabant, a UNESCO World Heritage site with a summit of 500 meters and known to be an escape haven for runaway slaves in the 19th century. The mountain is also the natural habitat of a very large variety of endemic species, such as the rare Trochetia Boutoniana, which is the floral emblem of Mauritius.

Further on, you will also come across the Macondé Viewpoint, located between Le Morne and Baie du Cap. Set on the curve of the coastal road, the peak of the small rocky cliff allows you to enjoy breathtaking views of the Indian Ocean and the majestic Le Morne mountain. 12h30: Lunch at L'Exil Lodge For lunch you will head to L'Exil Lodge's restaurant, ideally located in proximity of the cliffs. The restaurant is a magical place offering a panoramic view where guests can spend unforgettable moments and discover the best of the local Mauritian cuisine.
