You are in an ideal position to spend the following two days exploring not just the beautiful Waterfront but also the lively and culturally diverse city of Cape Town. Most of the city's attractions are literally on your doorstep. Take a walk around the bustling streets of the city centre - Long Street is particularly worth checking out for dose of local flavours - and visit African markets, antique stores, designer shops or some of the many restaurants, bars and cafes.

The beautiful beaches of Clifton and Camps Bay are only a short drive away, as is the cable car up Table Mountain from where you can gaze over the city, the peninsula and the glittering Atlantic Ocean.

DAY 5: ARRIVE AT SINGITA BOULDERS | 3 NIGHTS

This morning you will transfer back to Cape Town Airport for your scheduled flight to Kruger Mpumalanga International Airport. A charter flight will then take you to a Singita airstrip where you will be met and transferred to Singita Boulders Lodge. Here you have the option of enjoying a romantic candlelit dinner for two on your private deck, allowing you to relax and settle in at your home for the next three nights.

DAYS 6-7: DISCOVER THE SABI SANDS

The next two days will be yours to enjoy a luxurious safari experience in a classic private Kruger game reserve. Enjoy early morning, afternoon and evening game drives, remembering to keep your eyes open: the area is famous for its high concentration of big game and is also known for its frequent leopard sightings. Guided nature walks offer a different, more intimate way of exploring this environment. And when you're not enjoying this breathtaking wilderness, you can relax at the lodge in your private pool or on one of the viewing deck with a cool drink in hand. Relax and rejuvenate at the in-house spa and enjoy a range of beauty treatments and massages.

DAY 8: RETURN TO JOHANNESBURG | 1 NIGHT

When you're not relaxing on the beach you can take a stroll around the beautiful botanical gardens, enjoy a game of tennis on the resort's courts or take a dip in the infinity pool. Relax at the pool bar with a drink in hand and choose one of the five restaurants to enjoy a fantastic evening dinner. Get romantic as you indulge in a private barbeque dinner on the beach one evening and watch the sun set over the horizon.
